VI. Officer and Member Reports

President

-Dahle said that the townhall meeting that his office was planning had to be cancelled because the Los Angeles City Council is going to hold an ad hoc meeting on the same day. He said that his office is working to find other dates when the City Council Members can attend. He said that he is working with Harmetz's office on a survey to send out to the Undergraduate students about what they would like to see USAC working on. He said that his office also plans to put up a question board on Bruin Walk where people can write a response to the question that is posted.

Internal Vice President

-Cordero said that there would be a debate on the possibility of a war with Iraq on Monday, November 18th from 3 to 6 pm in Rolfe 1200. He also said that they were able to register about 150 people to vote during the concert that was put on in the Plaza.

External Vice President

-Neal said that he had gotten back from Ghana on Sunday night. He said that he was in the process of compiling a formal report but that anyone who wanted to know about his trip was welcome to ask him questions. He said that his experience was incredible. He also said that he attended some UCSA board meetings before and after his trip.

General Representative - Adam Harmetz

-Harmetz said that tomorrow Wednesday, November 6th from 6 to 8 pm his office would be holding a Student Leadership Networking Night in the James West Alumni Center. He said that Dahle and Neal would be speaking at the event and that it had about 50 to 60 RSVPs so far. He said that several groups would be present and that he hoped it would be a success.

Academic Affairs Commissioner

-Diaz said that the speakers for the "Let's Talk About... War" debate would be finalized on Wednesday. He said that during Week 8 there will be a speaker from 3 to 6 in the Ackerman 2nd floor lounge. He said that his office would be working with the Community Service Commission to have a statewide Student Initiated Outreach Committee.
