IV. Public Comments

Coreen Weintraub—CALPIRG

Weintraub came to the meeting to share updates about the CALPIRG with USAC. She said that the primary issue that CALPIRG is working on is global warming. CALPIRG members are working to start a service corps of students to enter Westwood to inform business owners about how to become more “green”. They will have a table out on Bruin Walk, featuring a “Wall of Debt”. The wall will consist of student contributions highlighting their own personal debt. She extended a welcome to USAC to work together to make sure that the campaign is successful. CALPIRG is also working to keep beaches clean, stop off-shore drilling, and attempting to develop a city-wide ban on Styrofoam. She said that the organization is currently working hard to recruit students to sign up for CALPIRG. CALPIRG will be hosting a conference at Santa Monica College to bring members from all chapters together. Weintraub thanked the council for the time.

VIII. Officer and Member Reports

President – Cinthia Flores

Flores attended the Student governance conference, and said that she received good advice on how to work with the administration. She thanked council members for attending the Walk Out. She attended an event over the past weekend at Lake Arrowhead with the Student Alumni Association, with a focus on addressing student concerns. Participants at the event talked about financial stability and organizational structure, and they worked on how to be friendlier and also how to collaborate with Alumni. Flores also met with the Internal Vice President of the On Campus Housing Committee (OCHC) to discuss the possibility of holding a council meeting on the Hill. She hopes to have a meet and greet with residents. She also added the idea of hosting dinners with residents on the hill to allow students to ask council members questions. Flores will be attending a meeting with UC President Mark Yudof to discuss the budget cuts and his plan for the year.

Internal Vice President – Shahida Bawa

Bawa presented the Student Risk Education Committee Annual Report for 2008-2009. She said last year was a pilot year for the committee and hopes to see stricter enforcement of requirements for student groups. She asked council to read over the programs that are being implemented. She said that the application for event insurance can be found at www.marshcampusconnexions.com/ucla/rso and that the application for liability insurance can be found on the IVP Orgsync Web Site, and encouraged student groups to access the site. They will be working to better monitor those who operate university vehicles. She also said that SREC will be working with the Ashe center to bring more free flu vaccination clinics for students. SREC will be distributing the forms widely.

External Vice President- Susan Li

Li said that she thought Thursday's walkout was a success. She said that an estimated 700 people participated in the walkout. After the event, participants marched to Chancellor Block's office and were able to arrange a meeting for Tuesday at 11 a.m. Three undergraduates, graduate, faculty, and union representatives will be present at the meeting with the Chancellor.

Academic Affairs Commissioner—Layhannara Tep

Tep thanked council again for participating in the walk out. She said that there is a connection between Academic Affairs commission and the Campus Retention Committee.
-Tep moved and Mullins seconded to permit the following appointments: Tevita Folau and Malina Trau to the Committee on Diversity and Equal Opportunity (CODEO), and Jason Tengco to Committee on Library & Scholarly Communications.
-The council voted to approve with a total of 11 in favor, 0 in opposition, and 1 abstention.

Administrative Representative—Nelson & Geller

-Nelson said that the Walk Out was a very successful event. He felt that students were very constructive in their efforts, and arranging a meeting with the Chancellor highlighted that success.
