- Bocarsly moved to approve the amended contingencies. Chikanov seconded.
- Starr called to question. Hester seconded. With a vote of 12-0-0, contingency this week was approved.

VIII. Officer and Member Reports

President- Emily Resnick

Resnick said thank you to everyone who went to the CSP lunch on Friday. She said they would be collaborating for their Bruin Day presentation. The USAC survey will be going out in a separate email tomorrow. She said in response to the code of ethics, it would reappear 8th week. She said last night they should have received a Google form of their office accomplishments. She said this is optional and will be going on the USAC website. She highly encouraged them to fill this out. She said to ask her if they had any questions. USAC does dinner in De Neve is next Thursday. She said the all USAC beach clean up will be Saturday, March 3rd from 11-2. She said they are excited to do community service. She thanked FiCom and the vice chair for putting together a capital contingency blast. She said FiCom would put notices on the doors. She said they would work to have a USAC and admin bowling social in the future.

Internal Vice President- Kristina Sidrak

Sidrak said the student leader's networking night is Tuesday of 8th week. Invitations would be out tomorrow. Campus Safety week is 8th week as well. She thanked those who came to the CSP luncheon. She said it was a proud moment for her. She said as a follow up for the resolutions, they are working on that survey. She said they would be adding questions about OrgSync. She said they would survey student leaders about it. She said week 3 of spring quarter is ally week. She said she has the position of Bruin Plaza that week. That is also SWC's and Rec Health Week and CAC's World Fest. She said she would like to work with the other offices. She said she would like to co-program if possible. There would be a mini battle for the banner on Bruinwalk. They could split the banner and split the cost.

External Vice President- Joelle Gamble

Gamble said they have 4 lobby visits this week. Three are with assembly members and 1 is with Carol Luu. She said they would work on one of the propositions. She said this forces people to pay higher taxes. This is a prop that Perez wants to direct toward financial aid. She said that if you are low income and already have tuition covered, you wouldn't be eligible. She said UCSA has no formal stance on it. She said it seems like the board will ultimately support it next month. She said when it comes to lobby visits they will talk about AB970. The grassroots conference and student lobby conference delegates have been chosen. She said people would get notifications tomorrow for SLC. Regent chair proposed a rally for May 17. They have been drafting things they would want to see come out of the board of regents. She said they are drafting a resolution. She said they would like to commit to student lobby visits. This Friday, they are shooting a video of "what UC students say." She said their week of action would be 8th week. It would be mostly handing out information and visuals. She said they are having a panel Wednesday night. Their guide of student fees is coming together and she will send it out when completed. She said she would try and make sure it is easy to read.

Academic Affairs Commissioner-Raquel Saxe

Saxe said from the academic executive board, they talked about semi-autonomy for UCSF. She said there is a lot of discussion of what Gamble was talking about. She said it seems like they support the governor's proposal the most. She said there is a process of rebenching the UC level. She said the way UC campuses are funded is like a parfait of layers. She said they had access to funds other schools haven't had access to. She said they want to rebench it so all students are worth the same amount. Graduate students however take more money to educate. She said Berkeley is ending up with a positive result. She said they wouldn't get less money but wouldn't get access to new money.

-Dr. Nelson asked what the rationalization was

-Saxe said Berkeley has more graduate students. She said there are questions about health sciences. She said their health sciences should be okay. She said they wouldn't be hurt but if the governor's proposal goes through they wouldn't get as much money as other campuses. She said they would see when things would be finalized. The office of the president is giving the proposal 7 million dollars and signed a contract with Blackboard to get students in the program. Saxe said the title of a UC should be what attracts students in the first place. From the undergrad council, they looked at the different development studies. She said they are putting a lot of resources into individual programs that aren't being used to the best of their ability. She said she met with the writing success board of directors. She said to please let her know if they have any feedback. She said this is the board of directors. She said this is a great program. Saxe said she participated in the registrar's focus group. She said all of the different UCLA websites are going to have one common way to look at it with one main menu. She said eventually, it would be one webpage. She said the focus group would look at what students would want to see. She said they would try to have it by March 1st by next year. Syllabus preview should be integrated. She met with ORL on major blast. They have results from the student math center survey. A lot of people didn't know about the survey. They are looking to make it more accessible to students. She said the timeline of the 1700's was taken out from the new GE requirement. She said she was asked about ASRF last week. She said that they had $15,297 in the beginning and now have $6692.76 left. She said she would be meeting with Heller and Roy to talk about corporate sponsorships. This meeting is tomorrow at 4. She said lastly, housing have 82,000 sets of cutlery to give away.

Administrative Representative Dr. Geller

Dr. Geller said they are invited to breakfast with the chancellor on Feb. 22 in De Neve dining hall at 7:50 and to respond if they haven't. She said they needed to know by tonight. She said if she received their email, she responded to it.
