III. Approval of the Minutes

*10/23/12

-Hasnain emailed her corrections to the minutes. "Go into" under appointment A was changed to "approve." "ASUSA" was changed to UCSA. The term "blurb" was changed to "blurb in any emails sent out." A sentence was clarified under the ARC discussion to read "She said some appointments are rushed like those for the Community Service Mini Fund." The sentence by Hasnain under Fall BOD Allocations was changed to read "She said groups may have received less funding than they would have winter quarter because of these policies."

- Kraman moved and Mohebi seconded to approve the minutes for October 23, 2012.

-Bocarsly called for Acclamation. Bocarsly asked if there were any objections to approval by Acclamation. There being none, the minutes were approved.

IV. Public Comments

Sean Wong- Grad Student discussed a camp out for students to purchase tickets for the first basketball game near Poly. There is enough space for fire trucks to safely pass while student camp but looks like they would like it moved away from Poly. He has requested that USAC tries to use some influence to keep the camp out spot by Poly.

- Hasnain asked if he has spoken with any administrators yet in regards to the location

-Sean Wong said yes but that he was not getting the response that he is looking for

-Bocarsly will assist with communicating

V. Special Presentations

UCPD- Nancy Greenstein.

-Chief Herren could not attend the meeting this evening hopes to attend another meeting in the future. Nancy has the latest crime stats and describes the ride along program.

-Hester enjoyed the ride along process. You are in the midst of the process and the tour of the police station was interested to see the behind the scenes of the station. She recommended that everyone participates.

-Kraman interested to see the officers perspective and their viewpoint and keeping the students safe from the outside. Only about 20% of the arrests were UCLA students.

-Greenstein we have 2 more students signed up for a ride along and we are happy to add more students and open to additional students to have a tour. It is a great opportunity for the officers to see a new perspective from the students to educate the officers.

-Hasnain did not receive a response in regards to a ride along but she is scheduled for a ride along and coordinated the details with Nancy

-Hester mentioned Diversity Workshops

-Greenstein we are piloting a Diversity workshop for the officers with Dr. Nelson's participation. Students can join and interact and communicate their issues and concerns to the officers. Work with Hester to coordinate that event

-Greenstein just received the stats of the crime on campus two different types of states for Cleary and Federal stats Cleary is solely for the campus. Sexual assaults are most often a know individual with alcohol involved. Assaults have gone down and simple assaults went down from 11-10. Alcohol we have no law sanctions on campus we are doing a diversion program with the dean of students. Now instead of receiving a ticket they are redirected and we find they are changing their ways and not having issues with the police after meeting with the Dean of Students. They are thinking about expanding the program and it has been very successful.

VI. Appointments

A. * Pamela Vila- Eating and Activities Task Force

We asked Gelbart why he was interested in the committee. He was a wealth of knowledge and had specific goals on the committee and impressed me about his passion. His time commitments works on Mondays and comfortable working with Administrators. Vote was 2-0-0. They suggested that he increase knowledge on past initiatives and the structure of the committee.

-Gelbart 3rd year at UCLA and his goal is to become a member on this committee because he has a learning disability I and it is close to my heart. He said he feels like he can make a huge difference and work with students and faculty. We are number 1 on the list for disability

-Kraman what are your goals for outreach

-Gelbart want to use facebook to outreach to the community, our committee can have a page and update with information and videos. On u-tube there are videos for everything but disability related issues. Use social media to reach out to students

-Tancinco what do you think the biggest issue for disability students

-Gelbart not knowing what resources are available and tutoring programs available since Powell program was eliminated. Perhaps get upper division credit to tutor lower division students.

-Mohebi asked if he was applying for 1 or 2 year appointment

-Gelbart he said he believes he can make a bigger difference with 2 year appointment

-Kraman asked about his goals for this year

-He said he wants disability week to grow on the campus and a disability studies minor be better known on campus. He said this is a great opportunity and discussing services on campus for students.

-Seth called to question. Mohebi seconded. With a vote of 9-0-0, Gelbart was approved for the community service mini fund chair

VIII. Officer and Member Reports

President – David Bocarsly

- Bocarsly said that you for responding to the email on the press release and your participation on the important issue. The elections for the Westwood Neighborhood Council received a few UCLA voices and we have 5 students and recent grads on the committee. Elections are next week lets do a final push to go to the poles. He said he will send out a campus email please send him your information in the email by tomorrow night. We had our retreat and it went very well. On Nov. 16th we will have our USAC past Pres panel speaking event. We are working on an invite list to students that will have the largest impact.
- Hasnain asked when the event will be
- Bocarsly the event will be around 12:30- 3:30pm you can work the event around the schedule. He said he hopes everyone can attend homecoming

Internal Vice President – Andrea Hester

- Hester said she attended the BOD meeting it was very interested and she recommends that everyone attends the meeting. David the all USAC retreat was great. Last night there was a town hall about the holistic admissions issue that comes out last week. We want to inform students that they can come to USAC Council Meeting to discuss their issues at meeting. She said she is working to edit and update How-o Guides please let me know if you are interested in improving the application.
- Bocarsly said to make sure to send it to everyone with a fund
- Hester said she will send that to everyone. She talked about the Diversity committee workshop with your office and a USAC one with the UCPD. Everyone is welcome to give an officer report to discuss their office once a quarter or whenever you would like.
- Hasnain for the diversity committee as a council goal f we can create a Google doc to discuss tangible things that we can do to initiate and the goals and what actions we can take with our programming. And show transparency and accountability.
- Hester can you send out last years information and we can work to begin that.

External Vice President- Lana El-Farra

- El-Farra said there was a rally yesterday about a day without a student of color. There were about 200 students at the rally. Please discuss with students that attended the event. Important to continue the conversation and how council sees our role in this process. She said she wants to see more action in the part of the council. In terms of my office day of action and they had events on bruin plaza to increase awareness of props. We will be holding the event again on Thursday. We will continue voter education this week and Tuesday we will discuss where to vote. We will have a forum on Thursday from 4-6pm in VPC a quick rundown of all the props and set up discussions for each props to share different perspectives. We have new Voter info cards please assist with giving them out. Our vote registration numbers should be in soon. The 1624 online voters registered from UCLA thank you for all of your assistance with the push. She said that the number of the entire UC System 38K.

-Seth asked how many people vote in CA elections

-Nelson the Bruin contacts him today about the elections about the students not knowing about Prop 30. If you are a student and a leader in society and not aware of issues that will affect you directly. Many students according to the Bruin that if the best and brightest are not aware. Democracy is depended on an intelligent and educated electorate. With the misleading ads on TV need people to think critically.

-El-Farra the survey was taking before the EVP week of action. Please spread these info packages out.

-Yoshida asked if they were Row walking on Monday to get the word out

-Hester said she will assist

Academic Affairs Commissioner— Kim Davis

-Davis said thank you for the students that organized the town hall last night. I have been in contact with the chair and they will be presenting to Council in the next few weeks in regards to the issue. There is a new email for students to letterstocuars@gmail.com to share admissions issues, stories etc. They will have a 9th week student voice and empowerment forum to discuss issues with faculty and staff. We will have diversity and holistic admissions as the theme. We will be outreaching to students with disabilities to discuss issues on campus. Carly has been appointing the ASRF funding board. Been contact by the academic senate and 12 departments are under review this year and there will be students involved in the reviews this year. Seth in terms of Nicole appointment I am working on investigating IUI Fee I would like to discuss with her

- Hasnain said she has been hearing from the LGBT Minor that they are having issues and asked if they were assisting them

-Davis said she was aware and her academic outreach is taking place.

Alumni Representative- Dr. Berky Nelson

Dr. Nelson said Last Friday he spoke with the Daily Bruin editor and he assured me that there would be follow up features in later additions. He said he attended part of the Rally and spoke with the Bruin and the staff that wrote the piece. They would like to have a balance. Many people are not aware of the issues going on today and the history and roots of the issues. We don't always know enough about what is happen today because of a void in History. He said he hopes to add an historical contact to the issue and that he looks forward to future features

Alumni Representative- Dr. Debra Geller

Dr. Geller said that she would be out of town for the next 3 weeks.

Administrative Rep- Roy Champawat

With our updated world, Bob will need to be focusing on the financial areas of ASUCLA. We have a 40 retiree recently and need to focus the COO role of ASUCLA. He said he will be taking on the Administrative role in affairs.

-Jasso asked if he still be offering free lunch

Alumni Representative- Lauren Lazarovici

-Lazarovici said Nancy and the UCLA Ride along and she urged other members who work with individuals that may see the other side of interacting with UCLA. She said it is great to get the perspective of law enforcement and the officers to learn from you. They don't always get to see the good students at UCLA. It is a fantastic opportunity and the diversity. She said she will be at a diversity conference with my company. This is the first time going since joining USAC and the understanding of the diversity issues at UCLA. She said she was interested in the restructuring committee about becoming more efficient and cost effective. It is so important to understand these needs and streamlining. She mentioned Sophia's comment about an appointment not taking a lot of time. Bu she wanted it take time and be involved and invested. What they have to offer and what they get out of it as a pitch.

IX. Old Business

There was no old business for this week.

X. New Business

There was no new business for this week.

XI. Announcements

-Hasnain said that the Day of Service went well. 450 students went to the community service, they went to 10 sites and we were efficient to have multiple bus trips. Thank you for councils that participated. Please send a presence to the event next year and will come back next week with stats. Hoping that the DB article will get more students to get involved

-Seth said that Roy, Patty, and he did the Text Book Scholarship drawing. He said he will meet with the financial literacy on campus and create a class on the campus. They would like to have USAC support. He said they are working to get funding and teachers for the class.

-El-Farra said there is a forum this Thursday from 4:45-6pm and to please attend.

-Yoshida this sat. We certified 25 students of CARE SOS to be certified in sexual assault issues and we are working on a coalition to work on programming. She encouraged all students to be involved and be an active bystander. Registration for DM opened today if you are planning on making a team perhaps a USAC team.

-David USIE due Nov 5th then vote Nov 6th

-Kraman planning the ASUCLA study nights and Chu had a few ideas and loved to have other offices involved for a kick off on Wednesday. Have prep for the services and studying.
