A. Special Presentation on Needs of Parenting Students – Ruchit Majmudar and Zehra Abbas

-Majmudar says last year during campaigning he met Zehra and Amanda.

-Majmudar spoke to them about the wellness referendum and realized that people in our position can make a difference for other people on this campus.

-Zehra informed council that has a 2 year old daughter and was pregnant during her freshmen year.

-Zehra says she was dropped down to an alumni position in her sorority due to her pregnancy.

-Zehra moved into reslife on the hill.

-Zehra spoke to her RA about her situation and the RA told her to hide her pregnancy.

-Zehra hid her pregnancy from 5-7 months pregnant in order to not lose housing.

-Zehra had her daughter during finals week of winter quarter and took that winter off.

-Zehra says that she was terrified to lose her position as a student here at UCLA and a week after delivery she was back at school.

- Zehra says childcare costs for early care education on campus was ridiculously overpriced.
- Zehra says she had 8am classes back to back, commuting from Bakersfield, and balancing her job as well as being a mother.
- Zehra says this year in January she realized she cannot do this anymore and wanted to take a stand.
- Zehra's boyfriend watches their daughter Monday through Friday and on weekends she sees her daughter back home.
- Zehra says giving priority enrollment to parenting students would be a great way to change this dilemma.
- Zehra says the childcare here at UCLA has a 3 yearlong waitlist, which is unfair.
- Sharma says regarding your task list, we have been working with the Chancellor towards priority enrollment, and using the lab school for parenting students and to also have a group of students be trained on how to care for children while parents are busy in class.
- Sharma says there are 1,000-dollar scholarships offered for parenting students in the BRC.
- Sharma says if you have any questions please let him know.
- Siegel says thank you for being so brave and speaking on this issue, in the referenda that was passed last year, part of the funds were supposed to go towards parenting students and we are working on that as of right now.
- Zehra says she is willing to help.
- Chowdhury says thank you for bringing awareness to this issue.
- Majmudar asks how many parenting students are here at UCLA?
- Zehra says about 1,000 students are parenting students that are documented; many students are not documented down as a parenting student though.
- Sharma says we also are talking about investing in housing for non-traditional students and we are working hard for that.
- Rafalian says thank you for sharing this story and it is inspiring, if there is any way I can help please let me know.
- Majmudar says he will connect those who are interested to work on this and what next steps do we need to take for priority enrollment?
- Mohankumar says going towards the dean of education to have this actually work.
- Mohankumar says there will be further communication on this for sure.
- Sharma says we need to put pressure on administration for priority enrollment will be appreciated.
- Zehra says many students are currently working on pushing for spaces for parenting.
- Kadota says Title 9 offers information regarding pregnancy and parenting during school.
- Zeigler moves to add 5 minutes of question from council. Majmudar seconds.
- 11-0-0 vote the timing of discussion has been extended for 5 minutes.
- Sands says thank you for speaking on this and we need specifics on what it is like to be a parenting student, many campuses do not work on this and this is our obligation.

IX. Old Business

X. New Business

A. A Discussion on USAC Reform -- Sharma

- Sharma says it is so difficult to talk in this room right now because we need some representation in this room and I do not feel like my council is protecting me.

- Sharma says he does not care anymore and is blessed to be on this campus but he is a gay brown man and we need to show the world we are a campus for everyone.
- Sharma says USAC needs to reform a senate system.
- Sharma says this is an opening forum for people think we need for representation on campus.
- Zeigler says this is the idea to create more representation for those who are not.
- Zeigler says she thought of the idea to not have 3 gen reps and making them more specific to communities such as international students.
- Shao says if we need to speak about representation on this table look around, there is not.
- Shao says people were messaging her telling her to not speak on certain issues and she has worked hard to have a voice.
- Shao grew up in Philadelphia and has been a victim of racism and never again wants anyone to tell her to hold back and privately message people if I call people out.
- Shao says it is not ok to close the door and not speak publicly about how you feel.
- Shao says Sands it is great to you got so many people to vote.
- Shao says she does not care who showed up to the viewing party because what happened after was not okay.
- Shao says it is time to realize that there are people who do not feel safe.
- Shao says she herself does not feel safe.
- Shao says if we want to say to be good listeners for people this week, it is not okay we need to do more.
- Shao says we have been trying to get our voices heard.
- Shao says we need to let people know why we are upset.
- Shao says her parents were undocumented and has a huge part of her family that is undocumented.
- Shao says no one spoke about how impactful the election was.
- Shao says she was expecting more from council to speak on this.
- Shao says she does not want to look like the angry woman of color yelling at USAC.
- Siegel says we need to focus more on USAC reform.
- Chowdhury says thank you for sharing your perspective, people are greatly affected by this choice.
- Chowdhury says even if you look Muslim you are criminalized.
- Chowdhury says the pipeline will most likely be built regardless of the Native Americans.
- Chowdhury says he is going home to Florida this week and lives right near a KKK town.
- Chowdhury says it has become less cool to be discriminated by race, but still has a feeling that his own white friends back home see him differently.
- Chowdhury says his family has nightmares of being attacked for being Muslim; we are lucky to live in such a blue state.
- Chowdhury says Berkeley has set for a senate system where each senate would have their offices represent a certain community.
- Chowdhury says this is not enough though because society works dynamically and we need to cater to everything.
- Chowdhury says if did not run for this position we would not have a Muslim perspective on this table at all, so we need to open up and actively listen.

- Chowdhury says we need to see how we as students can be a voice.
- Chowdhury says we need to make students feel safe.
- Chowdhury says we need to reach out constantly and know what it feels to be an ally.
- Starr says this is a great point and you have done a great job for transfers, but when do we stop?
- Starr says it does not sound like representation is the issue, its more of the goal and functionality because he keeps hearing USAC does not represent me, but what are the privileges that you 14 students have that others do not.
- Starr says you need to look at what USAC is lacking.
- Starr says it took a long time to get one extra seat, if you want to go down that route it will be cool but it is an interesting concept to look at what you have that other students do not have.
- Starr says you need to make students feel as though you can relate.
- Sands says his professor was born in 1944 and been teaching here for 55 years and he is even unsure how this election occurred.
- Sands says the exit polls were based on the economy which is why Trump got elected.
- Sands says racial resentment had no part on this election it was more based on economy, but white group identity was a factor for how you voted.
- Sands says it has never been until today that he felt ashamed to be a white man when 2/3rds of white men voted for Trump.
- Sands says he feels ashamed to have believe that it is better than it is.
- Borden says thank you to everyone who shared his or her experience, she feels so inadequate as a council member for these past few days.
- Borden says we are unsure of what this means for our students and it is hard to represent so many communities and welcomes the discussion of reforming this system.
- Borden says we need to reform to represent students on campus.
- Borden says she will try though, she will listen and make sure student voices are amplified.
- Borden says she feels sad as a woman in this country.
- Borden says being a woman in politics is making her more defensive than ever.
- Borden says she thinks that council needs to make time out to be introspective and not just make this a week of protesting, this is just the beginning and we need to try our best.
- Sharma says he agrees that we do not represent, we only serve.
- Sharma says just being an openly queer male; he is not actively representing the community.
- Sharma says he is not actively going out saying “hi I am a part of this community and serving as a transfer rep” we need more representation.
- Sharma says we are having this conversation for a reason, and there needs to be a way to represent everyone.
- Sharma says this council defines what is happening all around the world.
- Sharma says we need to open up more offices to make sure and ensure that someone has representation and access that we all have.
- Sharma says USAC did not represent him last year and there is a reason why people do and say things.
- Sharma says he is constantly trying to be heard, he was 1 of 3 people of color in a meeting last week and he needed to go to represent some color.

- Sharma says we need action!
- Sharma says we do not need to hear about the communities being suppressed right now, we all know who they are.
- Sharma says Berkeley's senate system is a great idea and will look into it.
- Sharma says also asking students what type of representation they want to see.
- Dameron says looking at everything, Rafi and I were shocked during election and realized how much of a bubble we are in here.
- Dameron says USAC came to be 52 years ago after the Civil Rights movement.
- Dameron says it took racism and hatred to create this table to speak on these issues.
- Dameron says we need to get out there and protest; he is going to Oakland tonight to riot.
- Dameron says he needs to experience this and learn and engage and I hope we are all serious about restructuring.
- Dameron says this is the time to do this.
- Dameron says he has agreed that he does not represent students here because he has privilege and we need to create a reform.
- Mohankumar says everyone here does have a different background and experiences and we need to actively participate.
- Mohankumar says taking steps is something we can do during this moment.
- Mohankumar says emotions coming out are well deserved and right.
- Mohankumar says please do not ever hold back your emotions on this table.
- Mohankumar says it hurts that a woman was not elected.
- Mohankumar says all of her high school friends are Trump supporters and when she goes home it is different and changing and it is scary.
- Mohankumar says I agree to enhance representation.
- Sharma says UCSD has a commissioner for USAC and if you have friends to connect me please let me know, it would be great to start off on that.
- Sharma says we looked at commissioners and they have helped a lot and we need to keep those intact.
- Sharma says moving offices up would help and restructuring would be good.
- Sharma says we need to look at different things that each commission does.
- Sharma says reconstructing is what we need to move towards and continue the legacy of the commissions.
- Mohankumar says I am not sure how you can break that down, but discussion is open.
- Mohankumar says some positions need to stay as is due to the heaviness of their positions.
- Majmudar says he is really glad that we are having this discussion and there are a lot of perks to this system, Bruin Bash would not have been able to do this well if it wasn't an all sentenced event for example.
- Majmudar says we should not lose what we have special, but we can work around that.
- Sands says he is glad that this is being brought up, but it is a very long and difficult and controversial topic to start up.
- Sands says it can cause a lot of arguments, but we do not want conversations about this to take away from us helping out externally.
- Chowdhury says we cannot ever hope to represent the entire student body.

- Chowdhury says the fact we have connections to administrators is what makes us different from students, we have a voice.
- Chowdhury says we need to hand the microphone over to the students who are not being heard.
- Chowdhury says being a good leader means to be humble and give out a voice.
- Chowdhury says now it is his time to give that power to those who do not have it.
- Chowdhury says our offices are not just we; we have multiple students so it is not up to one of us to represent everyone.
- Chowdhury says international students confided in him to be a voice for them although he is not international.
- Chowdhury says he would like to challenge everyone here to look at perspectives that are different from us.
- Chowdhury says we cannot let our privilege blind us to issues on this campus.
- Chowdhury says in our office meeting before this spoke about what special projects meeting can do to help this and advocate and raise awareness of what issues face now.
- Chowdhury says look past your own biases and privileges.
- Chowdhury says we cannot erase all of this at once, how can we poise these positions with more direction and institution to follow without losing the power we have?
- Rafalian says increasing advocacy is great, but we are lacking in funding so we need to think about that as a factor.
- Rafalian says it is a big problem if we cannot allocate funds to these senators.
- Sharma says he wrote everything down, regarding stipends, many senates do not have stipends anyways and we need to look at our own stipends.
- Sharma says we need to look at the money we receive to use it for other purposes.
- Sharma says if you have any resources for him to look into please let him know and please join in and help.
- Sharma says we need to see if students agree on doing this and changing this.
- Sharma says next week we will discuss it further.
- Siegel says holding everyone accountable is best by voting to make an AdHoc Committee, so you can bring that as an action item next agenda.
- Siegel says thank you for sharing the thoughts and feelings you all have about this.
- Siegel says it is great you are reflecting locally and as a nation.
- Siegel says everyone up here is a good person and cares, please make sure that everyone here is someone you can work with and improve conditions together.

XI. Announcements

- Chowdhury says there is a UC Socal meet up going on right now so maybe we can have one here to see what is effective and not effective.
- Chowdhury says student of color conference is next week.
- Chowdhury says this week our office hosted sick awareness week, and posted many mindful awareness events.
- Chowdhury says we have a photo campaign 9th or 10th week regarding self-care and how to take care of yourself in times of stress, we are having a self-care Sunday.
- Chowdhury says it would great to teach Zumba so we are incorporating dancing.
- Chowdhury says there is outreach for Sigma Chi and in close contact with the president and likes the ideas we are incorporating; this is for different communities to interact.

- Chowdhury says the VC of Greek relations loved the ideas we gave out and we all have a similar agenda.
- Chowdhury says if any of you are in Greek life and want to be involved, we are sending a poll to see who is interested in joining this movement.
- Chowdhury says this quarter we are looking to hold focus groups for Greek life to see where everyone is at in terms of their knowledge and what Greek life means to them.
- Chowdhury says we are working with the office of Equity, Diversity and Exclusion and around 8th week there will be a speaker series and a series of training and classes on different issues.
- Siegel says there are 6 different Greek councils just to inform you.
- Sharma says there will be more information about our event on Monday.
- Sharma says we need to start telling ASUCLA and UCLA as a whole to use more compostable items.
- Sharma says do these little steps to make a difference.
- Sharma says scholarships are going great and Ashly, Jan Rife, and me are putting together a video tonight and will reach out to offices to see who wants to be a part of it.
- Siegel says in the future please have an official officer report to speak more openly on what you want.
- Zander thanks Sharma about bringing up the plastic dilemma.
- Zander says Lu Valle is the only place on campus with compostable items!
- Sharma says we need student power to help with this issue.
- Zimmerman says reach out to Roy to coordinate for bins to arrive.
