IV. Public Comment

Velazquez

Radha: Hi everyone, it is great to see you all today. My name is Radha, I go by she/her. I’m a fourth year sociology major and the Chapter Chair of CALPIRG students. For those of you who may not know, CALPIRG students is a non-profit student-run, student funded organization at UCLA that works to protect the environment, make college more affordable and protect public health. We’re the group that started back in the 70’s to make social change and we have come a long way. In 2018 we got an entire state to commit to 100% clean electricity and we also banned plastic grocery bags in California to protect our oceans. The quarter we are running four campaigns, we’re working to get our state to commit to 100% clean energy, end oil drilling in California, alleviate hunger and homelessness and make college textbooks more affordable. Right now we are in the middle of our recruitment drive. As we know, climate change has its consequences, droughts, fires, temperatures are all getting worse in California, we’ve got to stop our dependence on dirty energy like oil and gas and switch to clean, renewable sources like solar and wind. That’s why CALPIRG is gathering a movement of thousands calling for change by getting governor Newsom to commit our state to 100% clean energy by 2030 and so far we have recruited more than 800 students who are interested in volunteering for our organization, and we can’t wait to invite them to our fall kickoff to introduce them to our fall campaigns. On behalf of CALPIRG, I look forward to working with you all this term and can’t wait to see all of the amazing things that you will accomplish.

- Public comment concluded at 7:10 p.m.

Q. Administrative Representatives

Alexander, Chacon, O'Connor, Luna, Perez, Solomon

Jessica: Just a couple updates, I'm going to share a Google Sheet, if you can fill it out ASAP for your contact info and your Chief of Staff contact info. The other thing I wanted to mention is that SGA has a signatory form, so if you all have time to stop by Vuong's office to put your signature on that sheet please do so we can put it on record. One last thing is that our team is growing and we're hiring on a few new members who we will be introducing soon.

George: I would like to meet with anyone who is interested about how to build alumni relationships.

Josh: We just want to make sure all your emails are working, we've been getting some bounce back. So please make sure the emails posted on the USAC website are accurate and working.

Orlando: Reminder that re-registration is occurring right now.

Patti: Just wanted to say great job with Welcome Week. We are extending Student Union programming throughout the quarter both virtually and in person.
