IV. Public Comment
- Clara: “Hi guys, I am Clara. As a reminder, CALPIRG is a statewide student-run and student-funded activist group that works on environmental issues, college affordability, and civic engagement. I just wanted to give some quick updates and let you know what campaigns we are going to be working on in the fall. So over the summer, a couple of bills that we were working on actually passed and this includes AB2146 which is the first sale in California to protect our bees by banning the use of bee killing pesticides in lawns and gardens and also SB 54 which is a plastic solution law that is the most comprehensive in the country so far and it is expected to reduce plastic pollution by 70%. This year we are going to continue our work on Plastics with a campaign against styrofoam in LA and that is because styrofoam is toxic and bad for the environment and 150 cities in California have already banned it and we are hoping to get city council to take action as well and we are also going to be working to address student basic needs by advocating for free textbooks at the UC to remove additional financial burden. We are also going to be doing some service work to address hunger and homelessness on campus. Finally we are running our new voters project and working with the EVP office and the Bruins Vote Coalition to register students to vote and provide resources to make voting accessible to all students on campus and we are just really excited to launch all these campaigns this quarter with our kickoff meeting. We want to have 100 people and so far we have 160 people who are interested in joining so it is great to see all the people who want to get involved and make social change so I am really excited to work with all of you in your offices this quarter. I will also put my email in the chat for reference if you ever need to contact me for anything, thanks so much for listening.”

A. President

     - This week I had the honor of addressing the new admits at an event on Sunday. I had a meeting with some alumni regarding the UCLA Mardi Gras and individuals who would like to help conduct and who sat on the board and who was chairman of the board so I am working with them now to figure out the logistical aspects of bringing UCLA Mardi Gras back. Our initial discussions were that it maybe won't look exactly like how it looked in 1995 when it ended but it will have a resemblance of it on campus and that's one of the things that we have been working on. Another thing is keeping in contact with previous presidents and discussing the president’s reunion that we are having. I had a conversation with SWC about partnership and we are about to put out a post.
     - One of the updates that I have for you all is that the Covid Response and Recovery Task Force is being changed to the Infectious Disease Management Team. So we are taking on more diseases that are just covid like monkeypox and other things.

B. Internal Vice President

     - I think Juan also made a graphic about appointments that are still open so you can check that out as well. If you are an individual office who has appointments please send them over along with their names and application and UID.
     - For my office, we re-registered the IVP office with our new SOLE signatories and then contacted our SOLE advisor about that and some funding applications. We are working on getting e-supplies for our marketing directors so that we can renovate and remake the Instagram and Facebook so that it is more up to date.
     - Our marketing committee also just wrapped up our director and executive spotlights on Instagram so check

     - I met with Fernando regarding finances and things for our office specifically. I got in touch with some Excel sheets that I need to finish doing now and I am working with ASUCLA to hire some of my directors so they can start getting paid starting this school year.
- We had our last exec meeting and then staff summer meetings and we met with Karen Hedges to finalize Burin vote and it is officially back up and running so please go follow it on social media. It basically is going to give a rundown of where to vote, how to vote, how to change your address and just a lot of different things regarding voting in the upcoming election.

P. Administrative Representatives

- Orlando: “Hello everyone, hope you all are doing well. Just a reminder that right now we are currently re-registering all other student groups. We also started yesterday registering new organizations yesterday so anyone that is interested in starting an organization on campus this is the time to do it as all of this will end on Friday October 7th.”

- Jessica: “Hi everyone, just a few updates. Happy week zero, I hope you all are taking care of yourselves. I just wanted to update you on a couple of documents that I sent links to in the Slack. I will add them to this chat as well. Parking allotments are currently available for fall quarter so if you need parking there is a form you can sign up on this week. It will only be limited to just elected officers. Next week any office staff who need parking can sign up to get a permit. They are first come first serve and we have a very limited allotment so we try to be as fair as possible by helping you get a heads up on signing up but it is definitely open to any of your office staff. We currently have yellow and blue permits for a lot. The other thing that I shared in the SLACK channel was the volunteer discount forum so if you are not able to hire staff and you still want them you can look for volunteer appreciation. One option we have for you that doesn’t cost any money from your office budget is signing them up for the volunteer discount forum so if you are not able to hire staff and you still want to thank them with some volunteer appreciation. One option we have for you that doesn’t cost any money from your office budget is signing them up for the volunteer discount card that basically gives them 20% off in the UCLA store which is the same discount that employees get so it is a way to extend that benefit to your volunteers. There is a form that you just need to put their name and UID and submit that form to HR and they will be able to distribute the cards so you can have the students go to HR directly and pick it up. Just a quick reminder that we are at the start of the quarter and you know the funding guidelines. Please remember to send them to the USAC webmaster so that we can upload them to the USAC website and if you have a funding source that your office manages just check the USAC website and make sure that your information is up to date and the application is up to date and similarly if your application is housed in my UCLA, make sure everything is current and up to date.”
